

Chuck Loveless

Senior Advisor

Chuck Loveless's counsel is respected and sought after by large organizations, corporations, unions and members of Congress. He has had a front row seat for every major budget battle in the last two decades, while he served as Director of Federal Government Affairs for the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME). Chuck's skill, passion and graciousness is so legendary that both Leader Reid and Pelosi gave speeches in Congress recognizing his service to middle class families as he left AFSCME.

Chuck comes to NVG to expand our coalition building practice and to bring his sophisticated understanding of the budget and appropriations processes to our firm. Our clients benefit from Chuck's extensive knowledge of how to persuade and motivate key decision makers at both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue to address a given policy goal. Chuck builds bridges to key stakeholders and ensures that our clients have the right allies to aid them as they deliver a message.

Chuck received his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and an M.A. degree in political science from the University of California, Berkeley. He is a member of the Bar Association of the District of Columbia. He is a past chairman of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans' Public Employees Committee and of its Government Liaison Committee. He has also served on the International Foundation's Health Care Expert Panel. He is former Chairman of Americans for Tax Fairness.

Chuck has in the past been named by The Hill newspaper as one of the top lobbyists in Washington, D.C. Chuck serves as a lector at St. Matthew's Cathedral.