

Kimberly Rueda

Associate

Kimberly is mainly responsible for maintaining close relationships with clients and ensuring their objectives and interests are represented to policy-makers.

Before joining NVG, Kimberly worked at a Law Firm in DC assisting attorneys with Trademark matters. Prior to that experience, she gained knowledge about Congress and the political sphere by working as an Intern at Congressman Seth Moulton's office. There, she worked on a variety of legislative topics, as well as Scheduling.

Kimberly graduated from Northeastern University with a B.A. in International Affairs and a minor in Law and Public Policy. She has lived in seven different countries and is passionate about learning new languages and new cultures. During her free time, Kimberly enjoys weightlifting and listening to True Crime podcasts.
